No. 10P-1322

ORDER

This matter came to be heard on the 2d day of December, 2010 before the Honorable Randy Kennedy, Judge of the Seventh Circuit (Probate) Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the Petition of Kim and Terry Patrick for a conservatorship over the person and property of Jewel Tinnon. This Court had previously ordered that Petitioners be the temporary conservators for Respondent. Present at the hearing Respondent, Ms. Jewell Tinnon, R. A. Stewart, Counsel for the Petitioners, David A. Dearolf, the Guardian ad Litem, and Karl D. Warden, Attorney ad Litem for Respondent. Also present were Beverly Chatman, Michael Chatman, and Margie Inman, friends of the Respondent.

It was suggested to the Court that Ms. Tinnon was in an adversarial relationship with her grandsons, the Petitioners. As such, and in order to ensure the safety and well being of Ms. Tinnon, counsel for all parties had agreed that the Greater Nashville Regional Council should act as conservator for Ms. Tinnon on an interim basis until such time as the Guardian ad Litem could prepare a full report based upon current circumstances.

The Court heard directly from Ms. Tinnon, who expressed her desires to move back to her home and write her own checks. The Court also heard information from Counsel for the Greater Nashville Regional Council who expressed that they would agree to the temporary conservatorship.

After a review of the foregoing the Court Finds, and Orders as follows:

1. The Respondent, Jewel Tinnon continues to need a conservator at this time and the Greater Nashville Regional Council serve in that role until further order of this Court.
2. Hearing in this matter shall be had on January 20, 2011, at 1:30 p.m.
3. Petitioners shall turn over all accounts and copies of all records concerning Jewell Tinnon to the Greater Nashville Regional Council. Petitioners shall make a final accounting to this Court within Thirty (30) Days of this Order. Petitioners shall turn over any and all keys to Ms. Tinnon's house over to Karl D. Warden forthwith.
4. Respondent shall remain at her current location until further order from this Court, or until a permanent conservator is appointed. Karl D. Warden and Michelle Poss are instructed to accompany Jewell Tinnon to her house where she shall be free to inspect the house and contents. She may not remain there until further orders of this Court.
5. Bond is waived because the Greater Nashville Regional Council has a blanket bond with this Court.
6. All of the rights of the Respondent related to the management of her property and the care of her person, including admission to a medical facility, or a psychiatric hospital, are transferred to the Greater Nashville Regional Council, its officers, agents, directors, attorneys, assigns and employees.
